

Native FISH Species:

Native Species: Walleye, Smallmouth Bass, Emerald Shiner, Largescale Stoneroller

Threatened/Endangered/Protected Species: Greater Redhorse (State Species of Special Concern) and Striped Shiner (State Endangered Species)

Number of native species: More than 33

Non-Native FISH Species:

Goldfish, Common Carp, Gizzard Shad, Rainbow Trout

Native REPTILE & AMPHIBIAN Species:

Native Species: Brown snake, Snapping Turtle, Spiny Softshell Turtle, Northern Green Frog

Threatened/Endangered/Protected Species: Butler's Gartersnake (Threatened), American Bullfrog (State Species of Special Concern)

Number of native species: More than 10

Native BIRD Species:

Native Species: Belted Kingfisher, Common Yellowthroat, Great Horned Owl and Wilson's Warbler

Threatened/Endangered/Protected Species: Bald Eagle, Peregrine Falcon, Yellow - Crowned Night-Heron, Hooded Warbler - State endangered species (2) State - Threatened (4) State Species of Special Concern (43)

Number of native species: More than 181

Non-Native BIRD Species:

European Starling

Native VEGETATION Species:

Upland Forest (Southern Mesic and Xeric)
Trees: Maple, Basswood, Green Ash, Red & White Oak
Shrubs: Chokecherry, Highbush Cranberry, Staghorn Sumac, Eastern Wahoo
Herbaceous Understory: Zig Zag Goldenrod, Solomon's Seal, Snakeroot, Woodland Sunflower

Lowland Forest (Riparian):
Trees: Cottonwood, Boxelder, Black Willow, Hackberry, Silver Maple
Shrubs: Witchhazel, Gray Dogwood, Nannyberry, Sandbar Willow
Herbaceous Understory: Trout Lily, Meadow Rue, Joe Pye Weed, Blue Vervain

Threatened/Endangered/Protected Species: Forked Aster (Threatened) Red Trillium (Species of Special Concern)

Number of Native Species: TBD

Non-Native VEGETATION Species:

Trees: Tree of Heaven, Black Locust
Shrubs: Common Buckthorn, Tartarian Honeysuckle
Herbacous: Garlic Mustard, Reed Canary Grass, Purple Loosestrife, Common Burdock Canada Thistle, Dame's Rocket, White Sweet Clover, Japanese Knotweed

Native MAMMAL Species:

Native Species: Meadow Vole, American Beaver, White-tailed Deer, Red Fox

Threatened/Endangered/Protected Species: Door Mouse, Silver-Haired Bat, Eastern Red Bat, Hoary Bat (all 4 are State Species of Special Concern)

Number of Native Species: More than 19

Native INVERTEBRATE Species:

Native Species: Monarch Butterfly, Water Penny, Jewel-winged Damselfly, Daddy Long Legs

Threatened/Endangered/Protected Species: TBD

Number of Native Species: TBD

Non-Native INVERTIBRATE Species:

Gypsy Moth, Earthworms, Rusty Crayfish, Multicolored Asian Lady Beetle

Habitat Key

Tree Canopy

Wetlands

Sources

Ecological Restoration and Management Milwaukee River Maintstem
Applied Ecological Services
By John Larson
July 2006

Regional Habitat and Management Plan Southeast Wisconsin
Milwaukee River – Port Washington Road to North Avenue Plan Report #42
SEWRPC
1983

Urban Forestry WDNR Grant Project
Urban Ecology Center
July 2005

North Avenue Dam Feasibility Study- Final Technical Memorandum Wildlife
WDNR
February 1994

Conceptual Restoration and Trail Project Village of Shorewood
By Marek Landscape / Ecological Services of Milwaukee
May 2009

* Additional information provided by the Urban Ecology Center.

Milwaukee River Greenway - Milwaukee, WI

Existing Conditions Map - Habitat

0 600 1200 2400 4800

February 6, 2010